

Can You Hear Me?

A Song About Digital Inclusion, Hope & Connection

VERSE 1

I watched the world move on today,
Through little screens so far away.
Appointments missed, a silent phone,
In a crowded world, I'm still alone.
They say, "Just click," they say, "Just log in,"
As if the journey should begin.
But no one showed me where to start,
And every password breaks my heart.

CHORUS

Can you hear me?
Can you see?
There's a digital divide between you and me.
I'm not behind because I don't care,
Sometimes the ladder just isn't there.
Open the door, don't leave me outside,
Let's cross this bridge side by side.
One small lesson, one friendly smile,
Could change somebody's life worthwhile.

PRE-CHORUS

Because the future shouldn't choose
Who gets to win and who must lose.
Technology belongs to all,
No matter how big or small.

CHORUS

Can you hear me?
Can you see?
There's a digital divide between you and me.
I'm not behind because I don't care,
Sometimes the ladder just isn't there.
Open the door, don't leave me outside,
Let's cross this bridge side by side.
One small lesson, one friendly smile,
Could change somebody's life worthwhile.

FINAL CHORUS

Can you hear us?
Can you see?
We're stronger when we all believe.
Every neighbour, every friend,
Helping someone take that step.
One connection can change a life,
Replace the fear, remove the strife.
The future's brighter when we choose,
To make sure no one is excluded too.
Can you hear us?
Can you see?
Together we're the change we need.
Every click begins with care,
Because everyone belongs somewhere.

PRE-CHORUS

I'm not invisible, I'm standing here,
With hopes and dreams that disappear.
I don't need pity, I need a hand,
Someone who'll help me understand.

VERSE 2

The doctor's waiting on an app,
My family says, "It's just a tap."
But every screen's another wall,
Until somebody answers the call.
A little patience, a little time,
Can turn confusion into light.
One new skill becomes a key,
Unlocking all that I can be.

BRIDGE

A grandmother sees her grandson's face,
A father finds a brand-new place.
A child discovers worlds to learn,
One spark of hope begins to burn.
Together stronger, hand in hand,
Building futures across the land.
No one left behind this time,
Every voice deserves to shine.

OUTRO

Every click begins with someone caring.
Every journey starts with someone sharing.
We're connected now.
